

KCD BEARCAT INDIVIDUAL STATE CHAMPIONS

Kentucky Country Day team individual state champions or its highest equivalent since the conception of today's coeducational school are listed below. Kentucky Country Day, "KCD" was formed through a cooperative merger of two private college preparatory institutions, Louisville Country Day "LCD" (boys only) and Kentucky Home School "KHS" (girls only) beginning the 1972-73 school year. KCD state runner-up finishers are recognized. Additionally listed below is a tribute to the ancestral era of KCD: honoring all state champions (team and individual) of the two KCD parent schools, Louisville Country Day "LCD", Kentucky Home School "KHS" and the two KCD adopted schools, Kentucky Military Institute "KMI" and Aquinas Preparatory School "APS".
